IKDHA Presents
'Osteoporosis: From a Personal & Professional Perspective'

3 CEUs

Speaker: Fritzi Nodine, NP-C, MPA
IPFW Science Building Room 168

Osteoporosis is an under-diagnosed disease that begins in adolescence and impacts women's lives as they age. Understanding and preventing osteoporosis are critical factors in maintaining life-long health. This course will provide valuable information from both a personal and healthcare provider's perspective. Participants will hear the most current information about improving the health of their patients as well as making positive choices to impact their own health.

This course is sponsored by the Isaac Knapp Dental Hygienists' Association, but healthcare providers from all professions are encouraged to attend. Women of all ages will benefit from knowing the facts about osteoporosis and preventing bone destruction at any age.

SPEAKER

Fritzi Nodine is a Board Certified Nurse Practitioner and has served as the director of the Osteoporosis Center at Lutheran Hospital for the past 9 years. She is a dynamic speaker who has presented osteoporosis courses to a wide variety of audiences from many organizations.
