Invaluable Member Benefits

Benefits that money just can't buy, but are very important and necessary to you as a professional.

-  LEGISLATIVE REPRESENTATION Members receive legislative representation from your affiliation with ADHA and IDHA and its components. IDHA is the only association representing the dental hygiene interests in the Indiana state political arena.
-  PROFESSIONAL IDENTITY Through your membership in IDHA/ADHA you will build a professional identity and credentials for yourself and your profession.
-  AWARENESS You will be kept abreast of changes and trends occurring in the dental/dental hygiene fields.
-  FRIENDSHIPS New friendships will be made with people who share your professional beliefs and goals.
-  PROFESSIONAL CONTACTS By becoming involved with component (local) and constituent (state) activities of IDHA, you will develop professional contacts that could lead to new career possibilities and allow you to network with other professional associations.
-  COMMUNITY SERVICE Through your professional activities you will have opportunities to make a contribution to your community.
-  PROTECTION OF OUR PROFESSION Through your involvement you will contribute to the protection of the role of dental hygienists in the oral health care delivery system.
