

IDHA - Dental CE Masters: Virtual CE Series

Date/Time: 7:00 PM Eastern	Topic:
August 7, 2024	Review of Fluoride and Hydroxyapatite 1 CE
September 4, 2024	ASA Classification and Local Anesthesia Review 2 CE
October 7, 2024	The Ultimate EO/IO Exam 2 CE
November 6, 2024	Ergonomic Process 2 CE
December 4, 2024	Bringing Out The Dead: Dentistry's Role in Forensics 1.5 CE Warning Graphic Photos
January 8, 2025	HIPAA_ 1 CE
February 5, 2025	Perio Staging and Grading 2CE
March 5, 2025	Indiana Ethics. Law and Professional Responsibility 2 CE
April 2, 2025	OSHA Standards for the Dental Office 1 CE
May 7, 2025	Medical Emergencies in the Dental Office 1.5 CE
June 4, 2025	Forensic Dentistry and the Importance of Documentation 2 CE Warning Graphic Photos
July 2, 2025	Infection Control - 1CE

- All CE courses will be live, held virtually, over Google Meet
- Register on the IDHA website to receive the meeting link
- FREE to IDHA members, $30 for non-members

Course Objectives

Infection Control - 1CE

Objectives:

- *Understand the Principles of Infection Control and the Chain of Infection
- *Know the CDC recommendations for sterilization and disinfection of patient care items
- *Understand how to document and manage exposure incidents.

HIPAA_ 1 CE

Objectives:

Review Security Rule, Safety Rule

Know when a Business Associates Agreement is needed

How to handle social media posts and bio-identifiers

Keeping Remote and Mobile Devices secure

Learn what to do if you get a subpoena.

Indiana Ethics. Law and Professional Responsibility 2 CE

Objectives:

- *Gain insight into Indiana state laws and regulations that impact dentistry.
- *Identify strategies to effectively manage ethical dilemmas and maintain boundaries with patients and coworkers
- *Understand professional conduct and managing risk

Bringing Out The Dead: Dentistry's Role in Forensics 1.5 CE

Warning Graphic Photos

Objectives:

- *Learn the identification methods used in Forensic Dentistry

*Know the importance of dentistry and dental records in identifying decedents

*Understand the potential and the limitations of Dental Forensics

ASA Classification and Local Anesthesia Review 2 CE

Objectives:

Understand the history of the American Society of Anesthesiologist and the classifications.

Be able to assess and apply the ASA guidelines for a patient's pre-anesthetic co-morbidities.

Be able to determine the type and dose of anesthetic to mitigate and minimize potential complications.

Be able to determine who needs to be referred for a medical clearance.

The Ultimate EO/IO Exam 2 CE

Objectives:

Review head and neck anatomy including lymph nodes, TMJ and muscles of mastication

Learn to identify HPV and HSV and other oral manifestations

Recognize oral manifestations of smoking and vaping

Know when it's appropriate to refer to a specialist for further testing

Medical Emergencies in the Dental Office 1.5 CE

Objectives:

Know the 7 essential drugs and their uses.

Know Basic equipment to keep in the office

Recognize and know what to do when someone is having a medical emergency.

Review the potential adverse reactions and the contraindications of nitrous oxide and LA

OSHA Standards for the Dental Office 1 CE

Objectives:

Understand what OSHA Standards are and how they apply to dentistry

Know what the Bloodborne Pathogens Standard is and what it covers.

Understand what OSHA is and how it protects employees

Know where to go to find answers to your OSHA questions

Ergonomic Process 2 CE

Objectives:

Learn to effectively identify and manage ergonomic risks

Know how to Implement the Ergonomic Process in the dental practice to prevent injury.

Understand the benefits of reducing work-related musculoskeletal disorders.

Forensic Dentistry and the Importance of Documentation 2 CE

Warning Graphic Photos

Objectives:

Learn the basics of Forensic Dentistry and the methods used

Understand how documentation can affect a forensic investigation

Recognize the value of good IO photos and radiographs in identification.

Review real life cases and outcomes

Perio Staging and Grading 2CE

Objectives:

Ability to Classify the extent and severity of periodontal disease at the initial patient examination.

Evaluate the complexity of disease management and the need for treatment.

Assess the rate of disease progression and anticipate future risk based on various patient factors.

Determine Responsiveness: Evaluate the likely response to standard periodontal therapy and the risk of additional tooth loss.

Consider Systemic Impact: Take into account systemic health conditions and their potential influence on periodontal disease progression.

Review of Fluoride and Hydroxyapatite 1 CE

Objectives:

Understand the different types of fluoride and how they work

Review the benefits and the risks of water fluoridation

Understand hydroxyapatite's potential benefits and the potential side effects.